Kiev. In 2018, Manafort was convicted of a number of financial crimes. According to a federal judge, Manafort broke the terms of his plea deal with the special counsel, in part by lying about his interactions with Kilimnik. It appears that Kilimnik facilitated communications between Manifort and Deripaska. Manafort had been under a Title I FISA warrant prior to joining the Trump campaign. Media reports suggest the FBI obtained a new FISA warrant on Manafort after
